These, along with other volunteers, will pass out Thanksgiving "baskets" Nov. 24-26 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at 306 Highway 90 in Bay St. Louis. This will be the first Thanksgiving the Food Pantry works with the St. Paul de Vincent Society of Our Lady of the Gulf and St. Clare Catholic churches. The "baskets" will include about 15 articles and a $10 voucher for meat. McCormick, the director, said the Food Pantry hopes to serve about 300 families on this holiday. For the last 17 years, the Food Pantry, a United Way Agency, has served needy families in the county. Although local churches, businesses and individuals have been very generous with their donations, McCormick said the Food Pantry can still use more contributors due to the increasing number of people it serves. In the last four years, the number of individuals served goes up by 2,000 each year. McCormick said he expects the same increase this year. Last year, the Food Pantry spent $62,000, with all but $1,300 being spent on food. This figure does not include the food that is donated. The pantry is audited each year by choice. ## The ARTS meets in Waveland

BY BENNIE SHALLBETTER Staff Writer

Arts, Hancock The County Mississippi held a strategic planning workshop at the Holiday Inn in Waveland on Saturday The workshop and facilitator, David Crosby, were financed by a mini-grant from the Mississippi Arts Commission.

Crosby has served on the Board of Directors for the Nonprofit Mississippi Association and is currently on the Board for the Mississippi Cultural Crossroads Project. He is also well known for his work with the Peanut Butter and Jelly Theater, which performs for children across the south.

About 20 area artists representing a cross section of media met to share ideas on goals and direction for the organization. The mission of the organization is to spread awareness of the arts both as a cultural and as an economic force in the community. Organization members were sent a preliminary survey which indicated that area artists were interested in offering classes to the community, taking classes to further their own art education, and participating in juried shows and exhibits. Members also expressed and interest in interactive projects between artists of mixed media and between artists and schools and the community at large. Studio tours and public demonstrations were also chosen as a popular way to

At the workshop, those attending broke into small groups to brainstorm on ideas to promote goals and to come up with ways to procommunication between members. The group as a whole decided that a periodic news letter and community calendar would best promote arts activities.

Group members also stressed the importance of reminding the public that art comes in many forms other than the traditional forms that many people think of when they think of art. Culinary arts, photography, writing, and performances are just a few of the forms mentioned as alternative art forms to the traditional painting or sculpture commitment and dedicated that many people think of when they think of art.

The Hancock County Greenways Project held a reception at Buccaneer Park on Monday evening to unveil a series of posters by architect Allison Anderson outlining proposed project ideas. The public was then invited to take a marker and add their own ideas for projects and places to include in proposals.

Mississippi Takes 10th Spot on Small Business Index

Mississippi was named District of Columbia in each one of the top ten friendliest business atmospheres for small businesses in the nation by the "Small friendlier it is to small busi-Business Survival Index ness. In terms of their policy 2003", recently published by the Small Business Survival Committee, a Washington-based non-partisan, non-profit small business advocacy group.

"That's great news for Mississippi's entrepreneurial future," said Janita R. Stewart, district director of the Mississippi U.S. Small Business Administration District Office. "There's a wealth of opportunity for new business owners in Mississippi, whether they're looking to open a small restaurant or start the next high-tech phenomenon. I encourage entrepreneurs to take advantage of SBA resource and financial programs specifically created to help them get off on the right foot."

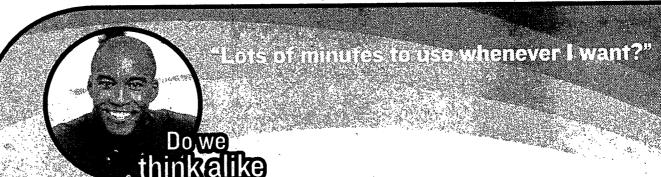

The SBSC Index ties together 21 major government-imposed or government-related costs affecting small businesses and entrepreneurs across a broad spectrum of industries and types of businesses and then measures the performance of the 50 states and the category and assigns a combined score. The lower a state's total score, the environments, the top 10 most entrepreneur-friendly states are South Dakota, Nevada, Wyoming, New Hampshire, Florida, Texas, Tennessee, Washington Michigan and Mississippi. Washington, Mississippi benefits from a relatively low corporate tax rate, a fairly low property tax burden and an absence of capital gains taxation on domestic corporations. Raymond J. Keating, SBSC chief economist and author of the study, cites that states following a governing philosophy of low taxes, limited government, and restrained regulation provide the best policy environment for entrepreneurship and reap greater rewards including faster economic growth and increased job creation from their entrepreneurs.

"Our state and local lawmakers concern themselves with how their policies impact small business, particularly given that small businesses serve as the backbone of our economy," said Stewart.

to add about $78,600 yearly to district operation costs. Plans for the project should be complete by April for bidding. The job would take about six months to complete, Griffith said.

The system would also greatly reduce odor and noise at the plant, Griffith said.

inflow current Át strengths, the plant would technically be capable of processing an even greater volume of flow, said Griffith later, but the plant is only permitted for an outflow of 4.9 MGD. The digesters will be designed to handle peak biological loading of 4,000 pounds per day with flow strengths of 150 milligrams per liter, typical household strength of concentration, said Griffith.

Currently, the average costs to operate the system flow into the plant is about 3.74 MGD with a typical biological loading of 2,460 pounds per day, Brown and Mitchell's report shows. But because of older, leaky collection systems, mainly in the two cities, the plant operates with a concentration strength of only about 81 mg/L.

> The added digesters would aid in the treatment of solids, or sludge, at the plant.

Currently the treatment process is unable to handle the volume of sludge produced at current flows. Sludge is not able to be held long enough to meet Class B regulations. To meet Class B regulations sludge must be processed for 60 days to ensure proper treatment before being hauled to land farms to basically be used as fertilizer for hay or other products. The Department of Environmental Quality regulates the hauling of treated sludge used for this purpose.

New digesters would allow the plant to operate at capacity by adding additional facilities for the treatment of the sludge. The digesters would also be capable of treating this byproduct to Class B standards in 42 days, should the need arise for increased digester volume in the future.

This would be accomplished by changing the digestion process from a conventional process to a series process, which requires 42 days of treatment, said Griffith.

It allows for the size of the digesters to be smaller the treatment process, but and still provide adequate the plan never material-

The equipment came to Southern Regional through Max Foot, contractors for the upgrade. It was purchased from Dewayne Deselles who owned a Louisiana company, Cajun Composting. The equipment was transported to Bay St. Louis to the now defunct Crown Equipment to be refurbished, but was never used at the plant.

• Plant administrator told the board that she was having difficulty meeting financial obligations at the plant because of the nonpayment of back balances. Current payments for treatment are owed on the 20th day of each billing month. The board said all back balances need to be cleared up by a December 15 deadline.

Sewer -- supers block fee plan

Supervisors Instead faxed Water and Sewer director Eddie Renz a letter which stated that "at this time the Hancock County Board of Supervisors find this an unacceptable plan," said Renz. The letter was signed by all five supervisors, said District 2 Supervisor Rocky Pullman.

Supervisors had asked the district to produce facts and figures from their budget and a line item by line item rundown on proposed spending and operation costs. District 3 Supervisor Lisa Cowand, who said she agreed with the logic of levying the fee, asked for a rundown of future plans in the district.

Renz said he got a message telling him the meet- impose the service fee. They ing had been canceled early Monday and received the letter later in the afternoon. He said the district had presented Supervisors with charts and graphs indicating proposed spending plans and were prepared to present financial records at the afternoon meeting.

Pullman said he felt that there was just not enough of a time frame to consider something that could set precedents for other districts or other fee proposals. More study time was needed to consider such a proposal, he said.

Because property tax bills are prepared beginning December 1, a decision would have had to be made Renz said the board will discuss that possibility at Friday's board meeting. He said he was disappointed in the Supervisors decision.

"We were prepared to take a leap and lower sewer bills in January," Renz said. "Now even if we come up with a plan to do our own billing, we couldn't consider lowering the bills till the next fiscal year or early

The district had proposed lowering sewer use fees from $35 to $29 for residential customers. If the board decides not to bill for the fee themselves, Renz said, the district could be looking at raising sewer use fees from $35 to $45 to cover operating costs.

In other business:

• The county was presented with a check for $391, 600 plus from the Department of Marine Resources to be used primafor projects in Pearlington, McLeod Park and the Washington St.

• Repairs on the a bridge on Caesar Necaise Rd. at Catahoula Creek will be halted in favor of a bridge replacement at the location sometime next year. Warning markers will still be placed at the approach of the bridge as previously planned. The replacement will cost between a third and a half of a million dollars and straighten the approach to the bridge.

Southern Delights & Fining 2003

Southern Delights, owned and operated by Neil Favre, is truly a treat for your taste buds. Favre opened the restaurant only 2 years ago and already has a loyal following and an excellent reputation for providing really delicious food at reasonable prices.

Every dish is freshly prepared to order and the portions are more than generous. Take for example the fried green, tomatoes with cucumber sauce or the fried eggplant with crab fingers and shrimp with hollandaise for only 6.95. Be sure to try the spinach-artichoke dip served hot with chips for only 4.99. Seafood gumbo, some of the best I've ever had, is available daily as well as a soup of the day.

If you are trying to eat light, order one of Southern Delights' fantastic salads. Boiled shrimp salad, grilled or fried shrimp salad, or the grilled, fried or blackened chicken salad are all excellent choices.

Southern Delights also grills steaks! Choose a 8 oz or 12 oz ribeye prepared to perfection served with a loaded potato and salad for a reasonable 12.49 for the 8 oz and only 15.95 for the 12 oz. Look for steak specials in the weekly ad that appears in Thursday's Sea Coast

Southern Delights has some of the most delicious specialty dishes such as the snapper, the grilled tuna or the stuffed crab platter. A very popular dish is Favre's own seafood medley: perfectly prepared marinara laced with shrimp, crawfish and crab served over pasta. The fried seafood plates are generous, especially the Seafood Platter. It consists of catfish, shrimp, oysters and frog legs, delicately fried to a golden brown, delicious! Of course Southern Delights serves all of your favorite traditional po-boys and sandwiches, and some not so traditional like the portabella mushroom sandwich. (You just have to try, it's really good!) Iry the grilled chicken sandwich with onions, mushrooms and swiss served on a Kaiser roll with french fries. Favre selects a lunch and a dinner special which changes daily except on Mondays, that's red beans and rice day, of course. And what better to top off a great meal than a delicious homemade dessert! The bread pudding with rum walnut sauce is fantastic as the strawberry pecan cake, hummingbird cake or the white the residence of the second second football championship in 27 years Saturday with a 21-17 come-from-behind victory over the third-ranked Hinds Eagles here in Joe Renfro Stadium.

PRCC Wildcats win state football campionship 21-17

The Wildcats, who last won the coveted title in 1976, bounced back from a 17-14 deficit early in the second half to take the victory and improve to 10-1. Hinds dropped to 9-2.

Pearl River cashed in on the very first possession of the game when quarterback Anthony Johnson of Duncan, S.C., zipped a 17yard TD pass to MACJC-Region XXIII MVP Larry Kendrick of Haines City, Fla., on a fourth-and-7 with 10:22 left in the first quarter. Johnson, who completed 6 of 11 passes in the 14play, 77-yard drive; while keeping for 17 yards to convert a fourth-and-7 at the Hinds 37. Greg Bryant of Poplarville High added the extra point to put PRCC up-7-0.

After going three-and-out on its next two series. Johnson was picked off by Hinds' Domenik Kelly at the Eagle 20 with just 50 seconds left in the quarter, setting the stage for place kicker Carter Mascagni's first of three field goals in the second period when he split the uprights with a 41-yarder with 14:55 left in the half. But Pearl River answered with a 10-play, 79-yard scoring drive to pad its lead with Johnson hitting 6-foot-5 wide receiver Larry Brackins with a 9-yard TD pass with 9:20 left in the half. Starting at the PRCC 21, Johnson hit Kendrick with a 33-yard completion on the second play of the possession to push things into Hinds territory, then targeted Brackins with a 29-yarder to the Eagle 8 four plays later. Bryant's PAT made it 14-3.

Mascagni's 27-yard field goal 3:01 before the intermission cut the Wildcats' lead to 14-6, but Pearl River's second turnover four lead Bryant's PAT made it Hattiesburg High finished plays into its ensuing series 21-17 with 5:30 left in the Quarterback Terrance Matthews' 10-yard pass to Von. Mixon converted a third-and-5 and was the first of four straight completions to move things to the Wildcat 26. Four snaps later, he hit Mixon again this time with a 9-yarder to the 10 in the final seconds to set up Mascagni's second 27-yarder at the buzzer to make it 14-9 at the intermission.

In what seemed like a flash, Hinds took the lead on the opening possession of the second half. Mixon's 44vard return on the opening kickoff put the Eagles in business at the Wildcat 46, then Matthews converted a third-and-4 with a 20-yard completion to Chris Humes to the 20. Three snaps later, a pass interference call on the Wildcats pushed things to the 2 where Martise Quiller plunged in for the go-ahead score.

Matthews zipped a pass to Greg Clark for the 2point conversion to put the Eagles up 17-14 with 12:09 left in the third.

Pearl River got nowhere on its ensuing drive and Trey Lunsford punted a 42yarder from his own 8 to midfield where Clark burst for 4 yards on the first two snaps, then caught Matthews' screen for another 7 to the Wildcat 37 where Clark coughed up the ball on the ensuing play and defensive end Quincy Hicks of Moss Point recovered for the Wildcats.

Johnson went to work completing 3 of 5 passes and converting two third-down situations over the next 7 plays, including a 31-yard completion to Brackins to move things to the 15. Johnson kept for 6, then handed to Curtis Hayes of Hattiesburg High for the 9vard score to regain the

An incomplete pass to the end zone later, Mascagni missed wide on a 33-yard field goal attempt, but got a second chance at the 3pointer, 5 yards closer, after being roughed by PRCC defenders on his initial try. Again, Mascagni's attempt was wide. But the excitement wasn't over just yet. Four snaps into the Wildcats ensuing possession, Torrance Hampton intercepted Johnson and returned his pick 25 yards to the PRCC 37. Mixon's 15yard catch on second down pushed things to the Wildcat 20, but the next three snaps went for naught. Enter Mascagni who missed this time from 37 yards out with 10:48 left.

Both teams went threeand-out on the next two possessions, then the Wildcats ended the game with a 12play drive to the Eagle 21 where Johnson took a knee to end the title bout. The Wildcats converted 3 thirddown situations in the timeconsuming drive, including a 5-yard keeper by Johnson on the game's next-to-last play and a 17-yard diving completion to Kendrick on a third-and-14 at midfield with 2:11 left.

Both teams finished the game with 16 first downs, while PRCC had an edge in total yardage with 330 (233 pass, 97 rush) to Hinds' 278 (194 pass, 84 rush).

Johnson was 21 of 40 (2 interceptions) for all of the Wildcats' aerial yardage, while the All-Stater rushed for 49 yards on 8 carries just 1 yard shy of Hayes' 50 yards on 17 attempts.

, Newspapers In Education is a program in which newspapers supplement traditional teaching materials in the classroom. N.I.E. programs are provided to local schools through paid sponsorship programs.

Newspapers In Education programs teach with the newspaper. Students learn to become critical thinkers through reading, analyzing and discussing newspaper stories and editorials. They use the knowledge they gain to engage in conversations with peers and family

If you would like to be an NIE SPON-SOR or if you are a teacher and would like to use the Echo's N.I.E. program in your classroom you may contact RITA BREUN, N.I.E. coordinator at THE SEA COAST ECHO 467-5474.

N.I.E. and YOU make it possible to put our local newspaper in the classrooms to put students in touch with what is happening in their community. Thanks to you, N.I.E. is possible!

Shirley Jones performs at Casino Magic BSL

THE SEA COAST ECHO

Everyone's favorite TV mom Shirley Jones is set to perform at Casino Magic Bay St. Louis Friday and Saturday, November 28th and 29th at 9 p.m. Tickets may be purchased for $14.95, $19.95 & $24.95 through the Casino Magic Box Office, by calling 1-800-5-MAGIC-5 or through any Ticketmaster Outlet.

The Shirley Jones story quintessential  $_{
m the}$ American Cinderella story. Jones was born in 1934, in Charleroi, Pennsylvania and named after Shirley Temple. Immediately following her graduation from high school, Jones was spotted by a scout photographer for the coveted Miss Pittsburgh Beauty Pageant. She competed and won the title and others before being. awarded a scholarship to the famed Pittsburgh Playhouse.

Following her apprenticeship at the playhouse, Jones borrowed a mere $160 from her father to move to New York City, promising to return home when the money was gone. That day would never come.

Jones learned that replacement try-outs for the chorus of "South Pacific" were underway at the St. James Theater and decided that the try-outs would be as good as any for her first professional audition.

She arrived at the theater to find over 85 girls scrambling for a place in line. Fifty-one girls later, it was Jones's turn.

The voice of Richard Rodgers, in a rare visit to a chorus audition, came out of the darkness asking if Miss Jones would be "kind enough to wait 20 minutes to sing for his associate, Mr. Oscar Hammerstein." She waited and sang, and the stage lit up. For Shirley Jones the struggle was over. Her first stage appearance was as one of the nurses in that same Broadway musical "South Pacific." Rodgers and Hammerstein then graduated their fresh discovery to a leading role and a national tour in their new musical "Me and Juliet". It was during this tour that preparations for the movie version of "Oklahoma!" began in Hollywood.

Competition for the coveted role of Laurey was mounting furiously and attracting national attention. Along with scores of contenders, Rodgers and Hamnierstein arranged for young Shirley Jones to interrupt her tour to fly to Hollywood for a screen test and the rest is Hollywood history.

The movie follow-ups to the "Oklahoma!" came like rapid-fire for the nation's new girl-nextdoor. Jones starred opposite some of the biggest names in the business in "The Courtship of Eddie's Father," "Bedtime Story," "The Happy Ending," "The Cheyenne Social Club," "The Music Man" and of course.

Television introduced another generation to Jones in the four-year hit series "The Partridge Family," in which she was the matriarch of the family's successful rock and roll band.

Jones has headlined at the MGM Grand in Las Vegas and has made numerous summer tours starring in favorite musicals such as "The Sound of Music" and "Show Boat". In 1977, she married her second husband, comedian Marty Ingels.
